1. Moving Furniture

Question

Your friend Jim is moving furniture this weekend. He originally asked you to help and you're writing an email to explain why you can't help. You should write between 80 and 120 words. You should include the following reasons:

– work;

– transport;

– family.

Answer

Dear Jim,

I am writing this email to explain why I cannot help you move your furniture.

Firstly, I would like to thank you for inviting me, but I am not able to help you move your furniture. Actually, my boss has asked me to work overtime, and I cannot delay it.

The other reason is that I do not have reliable transportation to get to your place, and my car is in the garage for repair.

Lastly, my family needs me this weekend, and my sister has promised to come to my home, so we can have dinner together.

Best regards,
Dhruv

2. Hot Water & Noise

Question

You are renting an apartment, but there are some problems with it. Your neighbors are noisy, and the hot water system hasn't been working properly. This isn't the first time you've had problems with the hot water system. Write an email to Marvin, the owner of the building, explaining the situation and asking him to resolve these issues. You should write between 80 and 120 words. You should include:

– What problems you have encountered;

– How you are affected;

– How to fix the problems.

Answer

Dear Marin,

I am writing this email to explain two things that I am currently facing in my apartment.

Firstly, I would like to draw your attention to my noisy neighbours, who often play loud music late at night. The hot water system is also malfunctioning again, despite having been repaired.

Additionally, the loud music greatly impacts me, and I cannot sleep very well. Due to the unavailability of hot water, I am not able to perform household chores like bathing and cleaning properly.

Lastly, I would like to suggest that you call the plumber to fix this issue and take strict action against my neighbours for playing loud music.

Best regards,
Dhruv

3. Company of a Friend

Question

You are going to give a presentation at your friend Jim's company, but you are not familiar with the venue, so you are writing to ask about some basic information. You should write between 80 and 120 words. Your ideas must come from the following three themes:

– Describe your situation, including the exact time;

– Ask about the availability of technology equipment, such as computers and projectors;

– Ask about the number of participants.

Answer

Dear Jim,

I hope this email finds you well. I am writing this email to ask about some basic information.

Firstly, I would like to inform you that I am expected to give my presentation at your company this coming Friday at 10 a.m. I would like to confirm a few details about the venue to ensure everything runs smoothly.

Additionally, can you let me know which technology and equipment will be available? I would like to confirm whether there will be computers, projectors, and other necessary equipment.

Lastly, it would be helpful to know the expected number of participants so I can arrange handouts and prepare my presentation slides.

Best regards,
Dhruv

4. Lost Bag

Question

You and your friends went shopping and then had dinner at a restaurant yesterday. You think you left a bag at the restaurant. You tried to call them, but they did not answer your phone. Write an email to the restaurant manager. You should write between 80 and 120 words. Your ideas must come from the following three themes:

– Describe your situation: who you were with, where you sat, etc.;

– What the bag looks like and what was in the bag;

– Ask them to contact you.

Answer

Dear Restaurant Manager,

I hope this email finds you well. I am writing this email regarding my bag that I lost at your restaurant.

Firstly, I would like to describe the incident that happened yesterday. Actually, my friends and I dined at your restaurant last evening, and we were sitting at a table near your kitchen.

Additionally, it is a red leather Michael Kors bag with a golden buckle and a black logo. It may contain essential documents, including my passport and driving licence.

Lastly, if you find my bag, please call me. I will pick up my bag at your convenience.

Best regards,
Dhruv

5. Stairs Light

Question

You live on the second floor of an apartment building with no elevator. There is only one dim light at the entrance of the building, and there is no light by the stairs. Please write an email to Mr. Jackson describing the difficulties mentioned above. You should write between 80 and 120 words. Your email should cover the following three points:

– Install more lights;

– Install brighter lights;

– Install motion-sensing lighting.

Answer

Dear Building Manager,

I am writing this email regarding the poor lighting in our building, and I want to suggest some improvements. I live on the second floor of an apartment building with one elevator.

Firstly, I think we need to install more lights along the stairs and in common areas, which can ensure not only visibility at all times but also reduce the risk of mishaps.

Additionally, I feel that replacing the existing bulbs with brighter lights would be greatly convenient for all residents, especially for older people.

Finally, I would suggest installing motion-sensing lights as an ideal way to reduce energy consumption in our building.

Best regards,
Dhruv

6. Movie Invitation

Question

Susan has invited you to go to a movie with her on Tuesday evening, but you can't go that time. Write a letter to explain why you can't go. You should write between 80 and 120 words. You should include:

– Thank for her invitation;

– Apologize for it;

– Suggest another time to go.

Answer

Dear Friend,

I am writing this email to apologize for not being able to go with you to see the movie.

Firstly, I would like to thank you for inviting me. It is really thoughtful of you, and I really appreciate you thinking of me.

Additionally, I would like to tell you the main reason why I cannot come with you to see the movie. Actually, my boss gave me one task that I need to do late tonight, and I cannot delay it.

Lastly, I suggest that we should make a good plan to see the movie on another day together.

Best regards,
Dhruv

7. Birthday Party

Question

As a parent, you write an email to other parents and invite their children to take part in your son Alex's birthday party. You should write between 80 and 120 words. Your email should include the following three themes:

– When and where the party will be held;

– What food will be served;

– What activities will be arranged.

Answer

Dear Parents,

I am writing this email to invite your children to take part in my child's birthday party.

Firstly, I would like to inform you when and where the party will be held. The party will be held at Sunshine at 8 p.m. this Friday.

Additionally, both vegetarian and non-vegetarian food items will be served at the party. Apart from this, every guest will be welcomed with special drinks and party hats.

In order to make the party more exciting and entertaining, we have arranged some fun activities, especially for the children, such as tug-of-war and a craft station.

I hope you accept my invitation.

Best regards,
Dhruv

8. Birthday Reservation

Question

You are writing to ask the restaurant manager if you can reserve a table in Oscar's kitchen for a friend to hold a birthday party for twenty people next Friday, because you can only book a table for six people online. You should write between 80 and 120 words. Your ideas must come from the following three themes:

– Time;

– Details;

– Parking.

Answer

Dear Restaurant Manager,

I am writing this email to make a group booking for 20 people, as you do not allow online bookings for more than 6 people.

Firstly, I would like to book your kitchen for 20 people this Friday at 10 p.m. The reservation is being made so my guests do not have to wait in long queues.

I believe it is important for me to discuss some details of the birthday party. I want you to welcome every guest with some special drinks and party hats.

Lastly, I request that you assign us a separate parking area just outside your kitchen so that my guests do not face any trouble while parking their cars.

Best regards,
Dhruv

9. New Neighbour

Question

Write an email to your neighbor who has just moved in and ask him/her to address some issues. You should write between 80 and 120 words. The issues mentioned in the email should include the following three words:

– Noise;

– Parking;

– Garbage.

Answer

Dear Neighbour,

I am writing this email to address some issues that I am currently facing in my apartment.

Firstly, I would like to shed some light on the issues related to excessive noise, particularly at night. Loud music greatly impacts me.

Additionally, I have some other parking problems that I cannot ignore. Our building management team has already assigned separate parking spots for everyone, so please make sure you park your car in your parking spot.

Lastly, I have concerns related to garbage disposal as well. Our community team has already assigned separate bins for dry and wet waste, so please make sure to put all your garbage in the right bins.

Best regards,
Dhruv

10. Vacation for 2 Weeks

Question

You need to take a vacation for 2 weeks. Your manager Dani wants you to send her an email with all the details. You should write between 80 and 120 words. You should include:

– Exact dates of the vacation;

– Reasons for the leave;

– Who will cover for you during that time and how can they reach you, if they have to.

Answer

Dear Danis,

I am writing this email to take a vacation for 2 weeks.

Firstly, I would like to inform you of my exact vacation dates, which will begin on June 15th and conclude on June 29th, 2026.

Additionally, I believe that you know the main reason behind my leave. The main reason is to take time off because I want to spend some quality time with my friends and family members.

Lastly, during my absence, Anna will cover all my shifts, and she can also take over my projects and responsibilities. She already has my number, so whenever she needs any help, she can contact me.

Best regards,
Dhruv

11. Company Energy

Question

Your company is trying to save energy, and you want to write an email to make some suggestions to the manager Mrs Smith about energy reduction. You should write between 80 and 120 words. Your ideas must come from the following three themes:

– Turning off the lights;

– Shutting down computers;

– Heating and air-conditioning.

Answer

Dear Mrs. Smith,

I am writing this email to offer you some suggestions related to energy reduction. My company is trying to save energy.

Firstly, I would like to highlight the importance of turning off the lights when not required, which will help lower the consumption of electricity in our club.

Additionally, I believe that all players need to turn off the machines and lights after completing their tasks.

Finally, I think we do not need air-conditioners and heaters because now the outdoor weather is quite pleasant, so we can use inverter AC and heaters as they consume less energy.

Best regards,
Dhruv

12. Party Suggestions

Question

You are helping your friend, Mrs. Singh, organize a party. She has asked you to send her an email suggesting ways to make the event enjoyable and memorable for all guests. You should write between 80 and 120 words. Your ideas must come from the following three themes:

– Music;

– Food;

– Activities.

Answer

Dear Mrs. Singh,

I am writing this email to give three suggestions regarding the party.

Firstly, I would like to propose a mix of upbeat and classical music that can cater to all age groups. A live band could keep the energy high, encouraging everyone to dance.

Additionally, I believe that a buffet with diverse options would be ideal for the party. You should consider including vegetarian and non-vegetarian foods that can cater to all dietary preferences.

Lastly, we should organize fun team-oriented activities such as tug-of-war and a craft station.

I hope these suggestions are helpful.

Best regards,
Dhruv
